MESSAGE FROM MIKE

The mail is already pouring in for our latest R & S collection, YOUR PALS, and we have to tell you...it's overwhelmingly positive! Seems you wacky caknuckleheads just can't get enough of the wacky misadventures of this pernicious pair of manic miscreants.

Question: What could we possibly do to add to the fun???

Answer: Add another Ren & Stimpy book to our schedule!

Coming out in the second week of December is our REN & STIMPY HOLIDAY SPECIAL, which re-presents the classic Holiday-Hooplah from R & S #'s 3 & # 15, plus some 15-odd new pages of art by Mike Kazsah!

There! Now, nobody ask what else we can do to add to the fun, okay?!!

Mike

Dear Dr. Stupid,

What is heavier, a ton of bricks or a ton of feathers?

Jessica Davis
P.O. Box 324
Mead, CO 80542

Why, a ton of bricks, of course.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

I am a great fan of the REN & STIMPY SHOW comic and television show, but that is not what my question is about.

I am a big fan of the Godzilla films, and one of my favorite monsters is a four-legged, spike shelled, horned fellow. Unfortunately, this guy's name has been translated several ways in English. He's been called Angilas, Angorus, Angurus, Anguinus, and Anzila. I'm never sure what to call him.

My question is: what does PTM, that mighty man o' toast, call this most colossal of monsters?

Evan A. Baker SLDA
24 Foxglove Way
Irvine, CA 92717

Depends who you speak to, and what movie you're speaking about. According to Marvel Comics' resident expert, STEVE BUNCHE, the name is Angilus, in his first appearance, currently re-released as Godzilla Raids Again. But in subsequent films his name was changed to Angurus.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

Why do onions make your eyes water?

Christine Thomas
P.O. Box 737
Belmont, NH 03220

Because onions are shaped like eyeballs and they're crying as they watch you slice apart their brethren.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

Are we related?

Sean O'Neil
7818 Grassy Garth
Baltimore, MD 21227

Sadly, no...and neither is Nidia Lorenzo.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

Is it true that if I swallow a lemon seed, it will grow into a lemon tree in my belly?

Nidia Lozano
Los Angeles, CA

Again, sadly no. If you swallow a lemon seed, you'll grow one of those plastic, lemon-shaped bottles in your stomach.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

Are all the letters sent to you stupid, or do you just pick the stupid ones?

Juhwan Suh
21311 Forest Meadow
El Toro, CA 92630

Both.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

How can I go about convincing fellow readers of your outstanding comic to write to a wonderful Australian like myself?

Karen Martin
34 Bagalow Crescent
Smithfield 5114
South Australia
Australia

Why, simply print your name & address at the bottom of a letter printed on a ASK DR. STUPID letters page! No guarantee what kind of creeps write you, though.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

If diapers are plastic, why is underwear cloth?

Aaron Hessian
18 Whitney Lane
Grand Island, NY 14072

Diapers are merely plastic practice pooper-pants.

Dear Dr. Stupid,

What is that gray stuff in people's pockets?

Eric Sandstrom

Dear Dr. Stupid,

Is it just me or does the ice cream truck make really annoying music?

Jeremiah Myking
58 Park Ave.
Erlanger, KY 41018

No, Jeremiah, sadly the ice cream truck does make quite a racket, which is why I'm personally embarking upon a lobbying campaign to outlaw retail ice cream distribution of all kinds! This may seem stern, but a couple of bad apples can't be allowed to ruin it for the rest of us!

NEXT ISSUE: Journey to the depths of the deepest, darkest jungle, for a tall tale, Raiders of the Lost Yak! By Martin Reilly and the returning Mike Kazsah! As if dat weren't enuff, Barry Dutter and Ken Mitchroney bring you several Stupid Lessons! All this and more in thirty days!
